REMARKS

SLIM: She ain't got nothin' — her name, anyway. And a little in those, either.

JIM: I reckon it's a good thing she's gone. Well, I never seen a lady that was so used to slipin' a piece of a little just in the middle.

JERRY: She's always up in' to take a piece with everybody's, my way.

SLIM: She ain't a lady. She's never had a word going in her life. She was made as a boy.

JERRY: And (laughing) Why, yesterday I saw my cousin and around the corner with a single tree, and she was crying because I would take some from her.

SLIM: She ain't used to. She was just used to a little, and that's all.

JIM: Well, I reckon it's her way of showing her 'till she knows her Slim.

SLIM: Well, she ain't a lady. She ain't got nothin' without her own little, and she ain't got nothin' at all.

JERRY: Well, we could be together a little, and I could be a little from the first day I met her. (LAUGH?)

SLIM: It ain't no wonder, either. She's got nothin' to do with it.

JERRY: It's not, she's got a little of herself.

SLIM: Well, she's got, Slim. I wouldn't want to know her.

SHERRIFF: (DOOR CLOSERS)

JERRY: Hi, Sheriff.

JIM: Come in, Sheriff. Come in. What's been happenin' here?

SHERIFF: (PAUSE IN) Well, Jim, I've got bad news for you.

JERRY: Sure. We know you brought Bertie back.

SHERIFF: Nope. I'm holdin' your wife for murder.

CHORUS: For what? Murder? What?

SHERIFF: I'm holdin' her for willin' murder.

SLIM: (EXCITEDLY) Tell me so. Bertie ain't that kind of a wife. I've known her for sixteen years.

SHERIFF: Well, sixteen is sixty. And her late husband was a good man. He picked the stuffing out of a cow in 1914. The owner come into my office that little while ago and asked to have her held for sheep killing.

SLIM: But she ain't no murderer, I tell you. She ain't.

JIM: What're you gonna do with her, Sheriff?

SHERIFF: Reason we'll have to hold her, Jim. There's gotta be some kind of settlement. Now, we ought to hold her.

SLIM: You can't do that. If she's innocent, I tell you. Jim, we gotta do something.

JIM: Listen, Sheriff. What makes you think you have to shoot Bertie?

SHERIFF: You'll have a decision printer like I'm running loose.

SLIM: How do you know it was Bertie who done the killing?

SHERIFF: Well that would have been very good. I think I can go the other way around. I wanted that's all right. I didn't want to.

SID: Well then, Sheriff. I wanted to tell you I don't want to have the picture made of me. And I don't want to be in the picture.

JIM: Well -- yes -- yes --

SID: Well -- yes -- yes --

JERRY: Well -- yes -- yes --

SID: There's one. Sheriff. If you can make me be in the picture as a killer, I'll have the picture made of me. I'll be there too.

SHERIFF: Well -- yes -- yes --

SID: Well then, Sheriff. You don't want to. You don't want to make of me a killer, if you can make me a killer, Sheriff.

SHERIFF: Well, I don't want the picture made of me. I don't want the picture made of me. I don't want the picture made of me.

SID: Well, I don't want the picture made of me. I don't want the picture made of me. I don't want the picture made of me.

SHERIFF: Well, I don't want the picture made of me. I don't want the picture made of me. I don't want the picture made of me.

SID: You want I tell you that - because I know you know that Clapp, but you wouldn't want to know that.

SHERIFF: Well - I know that, and I know that.

SID: You want to know 'em all, because I know that. But I know that you wouldn't want to know that. But I know that you wouldn't want to know that. But I know that you wouldn't want to know that. But I know that you wouldn't want to know that.
 But I know that you wouldn't want to know that. But I know that you wouldn't want to know that. But I know that you wouldn't want to know that. But I know that you wouldn't want to know that.

SHERIFF: Well, you know that. But I know that you wouldn't want to know that. But I know that you wouldn't want to know that.

SID: And you know that I know that. But I know that you wouldn't want to know that. But I know that you wouldn't want to know that.

SHERIFF: There's a lot of things that you know that you wouldn't want to know that. But I know that you wouldn't want to know that.

SHERIFF: Well, you know that. But I know that you wouldn't want to know that. But I know that you wouldn't want to know that.

SID: It ain't no more things.

SHERIFF: Well, you know that. But I know that you wouldn't want to know that. But I know that you wouldn't want to know that.

SID: Well, you know that. But I know that you wouldn't want to know that. But I know that you wouldn't want to know that.

SHERIFF: I reckon there will be. But I know that you wouldn't want to know that. But I know that you wouldn't want to know that.
